REPLY TO ST. VITUS.

St. Vitus, St. Vitus,
My thanks for your poem.
It haunts me when wandering,
It follows me home.
Just to think that a poet
Of such power and fame,
Should write me those verses,
And ask me my name!

I'm sorry that modesty
Forbids me to show
That old wrinkled face,
Where the gray whiskers grow.
And as to my name,
You may only surmise,
For "Ignorance is bliss,
When 'tis folly to be wise."
INVICTUS.

The Main Line Employment Bureau

The Maine Line Employment Bureau has been in active operation for about a week.

The committee in charge hopes that your organization will not only co-operate with the Bureau by endorsing it, but also share in its financial support. If properly handled, the project will be of real service to the entire community.

The need was so urgent that a number of the Main Line organizations feel no time should be lost, and the securing of a few individual subscriptions made it possible to start the Bureau at once. To carry it on successfully, however, requires that all the organizations "get behind it."

The Federation of Churches, who first originated the idea, the Main Line Citizen's Association, the Bryn Mawr Hospital and the Social Service and the Main Line Branch of the Red Cross and the Ardmore Chamber of Commerce and others have officially agreed to help support the undertaking and the Merion Title and Trust Company is housing the Bureau at half the regular rental.

The committee requests your formal endorsement, and, if possible, a share in the financial support of the project. The amounts subscribed will subsequently, it is expected, be refunded. A brief monthly report of the work done will be made to all organizations interested, and periodically, a detailed financial statement.

Will you please bring this matter to the attention of your organization if you have not already done so, and take some official action?

Cheeks should be drawn to the order of "The Main Line Employment Bureau," and sent to the Treasurer, David M. Ramsey, Bryn Mawr, Pa.

Very truly yours,

ELIZABETH V. CLOUD.

EDITORIAL

To the Editor of Our Town:

In the March 29 edition of "Our Town" there appears a letter signed by "Another Booster," evidently in reply to the letter written by "A Booster" in the issue of March 15, in which letter the writer pushed a proposition for an Athletic Field for Narberth, without mentioning any memorial feature.

"Another Booster" states in his letter that a Memorial Clock as a soldier's and sailor's memorial seemed to meet popular approval and that the ground for the Tower could be secured without cost.

The fact that the Clock Tower could be seen by every visitor and resident was one of the arguments in favor of the Clock Memorial, but we will have to decide if we want to erect a memorial for the passing public by way of showing that we appreciate the services our boys have given us or erect a memorial that will be a distinct and lasting benefit to the community as well as the most fitting memorial and one that is sure to be approved by every man in the service.

Furthermore, with an athletic field we would decidedly not be advancing any selfish interest for fostering it as a memorial. The idea is an unselfish one and in line with the idea of a great many communities in erecting a memorial that will be utilitarian as well as decidedly memorial in its origin.

It might be well to consider what some of our neighbors have done and are doing in the way of memorials. As an instance we refer you to the Upper Darby National Army League, covering the towns of Highland Park, Bywood, Westover Hills, Garrett Ford and Sea Lane, in securing a five-acre plot of ground for a recreation center and athletic field, to be christened "Memorial Field."

This League carefully considered a stone shaft and a hospital and abandoned the stone shaft idea on the ground that it was senseless to erect a monument of cold stone.

Bronze tablets bearing the names of every service man will be placed in a prominent location and the remainder of the funds are to be used on the memorial field which will be in the nature of a recreation park, community center and athletic field.

Mr. Walter Camp, in his article on the subject of memorials, says: "Make our memorials athletic fields, clubs, playgrounds. Get all the field room possible for cities and towns. If those who are planning memorials for our returning soldiers and sailors will for a moment 'stop, look and listen,' they may have a vision as to the appropriate form of such memorials. If everyone interested in this agitation would consider what the man who actually did the fighting went through, what it was that they learned through their months of preparation, and what it is toward which their thoughts turned at the periods of rest and relaxation, there would be no question as to what kind of memorials would be erected.

"There is no practical value in an arch or monolith. True, they perpetuate the memory of the occasion, but when we can combine the two and make something of practical value and use, there ought to be no question in our minds."

It was not the "Original Booster's" idea, in writing several weeks ago, to suggest the athletic field, which Narberth so urgently needs, as a memorial, but in so far that the "Second Booster" has mentioned the idea and criticized the plan, the writer is presenting the proposition of a memorial athletic field as a suggestion for a memorial to the readers of "Our Town."

Next question, "Will the people in general approve of cutting and removing the handsome old tree which has shaded the entrance to the borough for so many years, and will a clock tower representing a half-finished monument, which has been later transformed into a useless clock tower, be an artistic addition to the main approach of Narberth?"

Could a really artistic clock tower be placed in a large lawn in the proper setting, it might be worth considering, but with a background on the north of stores and public buildings and a background on the south of the railroad station, please let us try to picture in our minds the effect, always remembering that the great tree is to be forever destroyed.

Joyce Kilmer, the war poet, has written a poem to trees in a way that must appeal to every human heart. In the closing lines he says:

"Poems are made by fools like me,
But only God can make a tree."

Would a clock tower be of any real use? Could we all see the time from our front porches before we started to stroll or run for the electric? A good many of us can see or hear the train before we reach the station, and it seems that if one does not know just about the right time before starting for a train it would be a very poor time to start to investigate when we are within a few feet of the station. On arriving from trains it does not seem that it would make a great deal of difference whether the 5.15 or 5.40 happened to arrive from town a minute late, and so long as Ingersoll's are so cheap and the soldiers and sailors all have the wrist watch habit, we might be satisfied with the numerous well-regulated clocks in the various buildings near the station. However, it would be up to the Memorial General Committee to decide for the rest of us and we to follow along and make the proposition go.

It is to be hoped that the various representatives on the General Committee will do credit to the organization which they represent and work out a memorial which will be a real credit to the Borough of Narberth, one which we will not regret in the years to come and one that can be approved and endorsed by the men in the service, in whose honor it is given.

"THE ORIGINAL BOOSTER."

To the Editor of Our Town:

Is it to be said of the residents here that they are so indifferent to the "Memorial" project that the boasted community co-operation is a fantasy? Otherwise, why the delay and difficulty in reaching an immediate decision as to the form of our public acknowledgment should take in recognition of the magnificent work done for us and our posterity by the American soldiers, sailors and marines? Let us not be charged by those whom we would honor that we are not broad nor generous enough to make it their memorial and theirs only. In other words, let us be true to them and to ourselves, so it cannot even be implied we have used the occasion to forward some borough utility. Don't let us adulterate the fundamental sentiment, but let us greet them and say, "Boys, this is all yours."

ERIC.

To the Editor of Our Town:

That town of Ardmore certainly is ambitious. Here they are just getting used to that fine building where they keep all their money, and now they have the bug again and want another.

Did you know they contemplate building a Hall of Honor as a memorial to their soldiers and sailors who helped make the world safe for democracy?

To be ambitious is, of course, a virtue; but isn't it, after all, unfortunate that some people must be so ambitious that with everything they do they insist on being what they call "practical," or trying to kill two birds with one stone, so to speak?

Occasionally some of the things we do make it very plain why the Allies at first thought we were "Dollar Chasers." Of course, they know better now, but can't you see how they get these impressions when we carry our practical ideas into everything we do, no matter how lofty?

Now, speaking as an individual, I, too, have ambitions, and in my work-a-day affairs strive to be practical, but I also have ideals that I believe there is a time and a place for everything. This Memorial business, and the fact of our neighbors building an auditorium has, therefore, prompted me to try and make this appeal to our Narberth Memorial Committee, that when we decide on our Memorial that we be guided by the beautiful ideal that prompted these Memorials and not entirely by the practical or commercial viewpoint.

Don't you believe that our soldiers and sailors who particularly distinguished themselves will prize more highly the medals they receive than if they had been given the monetary value of the medal? There is no doubt about it, and I believe we, too, should be so guided when we decide on the form of our Memorial.

"Constructive Criticism" is the word of the day, but not being a member of the Memorial Committee, I dare hardly presume to suggest the form our Memorial should take. However, I believe our Postmaster is a member of the committee, and the other day I saw a drawing of a clock tower in his window. Far be it from me to steal anyone's thunder, but it strikes me something of that nature is pretty close to the kind of a Memorial we should have. And, by the way, it should appeal to our practical townsmen because we need a real clock somewhere around the station.

At any rate, let us be practical if we must, but if we are going to build a Memorial, let us be inspired with the ideal and have something that is truly a Memorial and a credit to our town, as well as to the boys to whom it is dedicated.

To the Editor of Our Town:

The following is from March North American Review, and it seems to me that it contains a message of comfort, which might be published in Our Town if you think it appropriate.

HOME TOWN CITIZEN.

IMMORTAL YOUTH.

Sir:—To many of the patriotic and loving yet bereaved fathers and mothers whose sons have fallen in the Great War, I have found that one of the most comforting thoughts has been that their "boys" have been thereby endowed with "immortal youth."

No matter how long the parents live, their boy never will grow old to them. Had he and they lived together for ten, twenty or forty years, the boy of twenty-odd would have become the man of even sixty-odd with gray hairs and the pes anserinus furrowing his temples. Once he has given life itself for Liberty and Civilization, he has passed from the realm of time, with its changes and its vicissitudes, its ageing and its decrepitude, into the realm of immortality. There he never will lose the bloom of youth with his well-remembered inspiring buoyancy, his affection, his ardent, hopeful, cheerful life. Immortality for him and them knows neither decay nor decline. Its voice is ever that of vigorous, hopeful, radiant Eternal Youth.

I believe as firmly in immortality and the future life as I do in my present existence. Hence I believe that Immortal Youth is the future of our young heroes who have made what is well called the "Supreme Sacrifice."

WYNNEWOOD HOMES ROBBED OF JEWELS.

Burglar Caluly Loots House When Child's Nurse Says He's Heater Man.

Two robberies, netting him jewelry valued at hundreds of dollars, were committed early Wednesday evening by the same thief in houses at Wynnewood. The victims were Mrs. Rudolph Celberman, 317 Hathaway Lane, and F. Rodney Pleasanton, 241 East Lancaster Avenue.

At the Pleasanton house, visited about 8 o'clock, the family was in the living room when a child suddenly called out, "Someone is creeping up the stairs." She was reassured by the nurse, saying, "It is the heater man." The thief overheard her remark and made no further effort to conceal his presence. A few minutes later he coolly walked downstairs and out of the house, taking with him two jewel cases. The robbery was discovered shortly afterward.

Mr. and Mrs. Pleasanton are both away, and other members of the family could not tell the value of the stolen articles except that it amounted to many hundreds of dollars.

The Celberman house was robbed a half-hour earlier. The thief secured entrance while the family was at dinner, placing a ladder against an open second-story window. The robbery of jewelry and other articles, said to be valued at several hundred dollars, was discovered some time after the man left the house.

Mrs. Francis H. Baker, of Windsor avenue, has been elected President of Montgomery County 'Circles of King's Daughters at the convention held recently at Bryn Mawr. Mrs. Baker succeeds Mrs. Robert Sturgis, of Wynecote, Pa.

One of the best minstrel shows ever produced in Narberth is being prepared by the Boy Scouts, who are zealously getting ready to stage it the 25th of this month. All of the members of this show are strictly home talent, and expect you to back them up.

Mrs. George Merritt Davis, 121 Woodside avenue, will entertain the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church at an Easter Party on Monday afternoon, April 7th, 2.30. All members and friends invited. Mrs. H. H. Kynett, Corresponding Secretary of the Philadelphia Conference, will be the speaker.

Mrs. F. H. Hewitt, 116 Essex avenue, has invited all members of the Needlework Guild to spend Wednesday afternoon, April 9th, at her home. Bring your work bag with you and be sure of a pleasant afternoon. We are accomplishing a lot of work for our French needy ones. Remember, 2 o'clock, April 9th.

"The Border Legion," a vivid picture of Zane Grey's widely read story, starring Blanche Bates and Hobart Bosworth and acclaimed the most virile drama of the year, will be shown at the Palace Theatre, Ardmore, on Wednesday. Many of the earlier scenes had Barbara, Calif., and surroundings as a background, but the telling scenes in the production were taken in the heart of the Rockies. "The Border Legion" is an unusually thrilling and exciting story.

Reserve the evening of April 12! On that date the annual Senior play will be given. The Class of '19 will present, under the supervision of Miss M. L. Boynton, a college farce in three acts, called "A Strenuous Life." Do not fail to be on hand, as those who have missed this play elsewhere have been badly disappointed. The general admission is fifty cents, but a few reserved seats may be had for seventy-five cents. The play will be given in the school auditorium.

A number of winners of flowering trees who did not call for their prizes last Saturday at the Old Post Office, can get them by calling on H. R. Hillegas, Chairman Garden Committee, 9 Elmwood avenue. Trees will not be held longer than April 2nd.

Mr. Hillegas is holding trees for the following winners: F. H. Prescott, F. A. Clark, A. Easton, O. J. Snyder, F. W. Stites, A. C. Warner, Norman Jeffries, Elmer Marsh, Earl Condon, John K. Ketcham, 219 Price avenue,

The Main Line Liberty Loan Committee is one of the divisions of the Third Federal Reserve District that was given the honor of naming a ship and naming its sponsor. As already announced, the chosen name is Liberty-Land, and its sponsor is Mrs. Norton Downs, of Merion. Since the name Liberty-Land was chosen, Mr. Allen Evans, of Haverford, who led the Liberty Loan team there, has discovered an old map of Philadelphia and surroundings made in 1682 by a surveyor named Holmes, who was doing the work for William Penn. The section around the built-up part of the city was called Liberty-Lands. Strangely enough, these Liberty Lands ran up to what is now City Line avenue, within a stone's throw of the present residence of Mrs. Norton Downs. These old Liberty-Lands will bring to the mind of Philadelphians the old part of the city that used to be called Northern Liberties. William Penn in his wisdom planned to put aside a certain amount of farm lands that was divided up into small parcels, one of which went to each buyer of city land. The Main Line Liberty Loan Committee has taken this remarkable historical coincidence as a good omen and is all set to break even the records that they have established in the previous loans.

WORN CLOTHING WANTED BY THE RED CROSS.

The great drive of the American Red Cross for articles of used clothing to relieve Europe's suffering millions is being held this week.

As the clothes will be subjected to the hardest kind of wear, only garments of strong and durable materials should be sent. Shoes of every size are asked for. Send clothes to Headquarters, Main Line Branch No. 1, Morris and Montgomery avenues, Bryn Mawr.

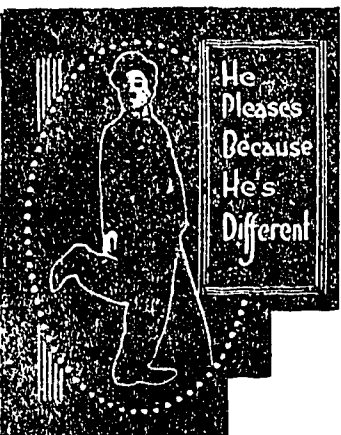

WAR STAMPS.

To invest in War Stamps is not only a patriotic duty which all of us should regard, but it is an investment which cannot be beaten because of the rate of interest paid and the privileges connected with it. Union County, Pa., has purchased $3.19 per capita for 1919, and three months of the year have not passed. Montgomery County has purchased $.55 per capita and Narberth $.85 per capita. The good patriotic people of our town should give proper attention to War Stamps.

SOLDIERS' REGISTER.

A register is being prepared and will soon be placed in the charge of Postmaster Haws to obtain a complete record of Narberth's men who served their country in the great war of 1917-18. This record will include name, branch of service, where mobilized, time of entry, discharge, where engaged, special citations, etc. Notice will be posted in post office lobby when register is ready.

THE Narberth Guard drills every Thursday evening in the Fire House, 7.45 to 8.45.

WOMEN'S COMMUNITY CLUB

An appreciation of Joyce Kilmer was read by Mrs. Lewis R. Dick, President of the Browning Society of Philadelphia, on Tuesday afternoon, April 1.

All who were fortunate enough to be present must surely have felt it a great privilege not only to have heard Mrs. Dick, but to have obtained a more intimate knowledge and acquaintance with Joyce Kilmer. Mrs. Dick's personal acquaintance with the poet enabled her to give some reminiscences particularly interesting as pertaining to his home life, his wife, and five little ones.

We are glad to have heard Mrs. Dick and doubly glad to have had Joyce Kilmer, even for so brief a period.

Vocal selections by a sextette and a solo by Mrs. Howard Hoffman were added attractions for the day's program. The social hour was well cared for by the hostesses, Mrs. A. B. Ross, Mrs. Carl B. Metzgar and Mrs. Wm. A. Russell.

April 15 will be "Children's Day" at the Women's Community Club. The program will be furnished by the children. Further announcements will be given in the next issue of "Our Town."

Under the auspices of the New Century Club of Philadelphia, Catherine Breshkovsky "The Little Grandmother of Russia," will be heard at the Academy of Music on Monday evening, April 14, at 8 o'clock.

This may be the only opportunity to see and hear this remarkable old woman whose life history is the record of a long, thrilling struggle for her country and people.

Brigadier General Egbert, Chief Surgeon of the Red Cross in Russia will accompany her and give an eye-witness account of recent conditions in Russia.

Seats in Parquet and Balcony $1.50
Family Circle Seats 1.00
Seats in Gallery50
Madame Breshkovsky devotes the entire proceeds of her lecture to her fund for orphan children of Russia.

The College Settlement of Philadelphia invites the members of the Women's Community Club to 433 Christian Street on Thursday afternoon, April 10, to meet the Women's Club of the Settlement at the opening of their new club rooms. This occasion, it is hoped, is but a beginning in a vital and increasing reciprocity between the older and newer clubs of the community. Tea served from 2.00 to 5.30 P. M.

The School of Horticulture for Women of Ambler, Pa., invites members of the Women's Community Club to the annual luncheon at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel, Philadelphia, Thursday, April 10, at 12.30 P. M.

Speakers are Miss Martha Van Rensselaer, Hon. Wm. G. Creasy, Mrs. Edward N. Biddle, Mr. Gifford Pinchot. Tickets $2.00.

The Victory Loan, called for by the United States Government, will begin on April 21. It is hoped that members and friends of the Club will respond as liberally as heretofore and wherever possible lend their efforts in this campaign.

Mrs. C. P. Fowler has again consented to act as chairman of the Women's Committee in Narberth and will be able assisted by Mrs. A. B. Ross.

NOTICE.

As orders received for fertilizer or manure have so far amounted to only 15 tons, the plan to purchase a carload for the community at the wholesale price will have to be abandoned.

Scout News

The regular meeting of Troop 1, B. S. A., was held on Tuesday evening in Elm Hall. It was announced that the collection at this meeting was sufficient to finish payment upon our Liberty Bond. Now all ready for the Victory Loan. Meeting adjourned early to allow the boys time to rehearse for the coming Minstrel Show. Wonder of wonders—we did not have a visit from the village belles who roughhoused us last week and rubbed all the black off our faces. Oh! you girls! The boys are getting right down to a real professional pace. Our new songs and never-heard-before jokes are some sensational and so highly appreciated that our Scout Master is almost ashamed to watch us without paying admission. Oh boy, it is some show and is going to be the nearest thing to a big time outfit you ever saw. Pretty soon we are going to let the public in on some real facts about the versatility of our end men. Tickets are going to be ready at the next meeting. Look out for the boys then. They will be at your door to promote the sale of them. Don't forget to say quick how many you want. It is going to be standing room only at the box office on the night of the show. Don't forget the time and the place, 8 P. M., April 25th, Elm Hall. Oh, I forgot. Also dance following the closing act. Nuf sed.

Precipitation was the heaviest since May, 1918. The severe storm of the 28th-29th was attended by northwesterly gales, and the maximum wind velocity was reported from New York at 92 miles an hour. The storm was unduly prolonged, as evidenced by the sluggish recovery of the barometer.

The Women's Auxiliary

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Auxiliary will be held on Monday evening, April 7th, at 8 o'clock promptly. This meeting is called at the same time as that of the Board of Directors and it is planned to follow both meetings with a social hour. We will be very glad to welcome all husbands of the Auxiliary members and wives of the Directors.

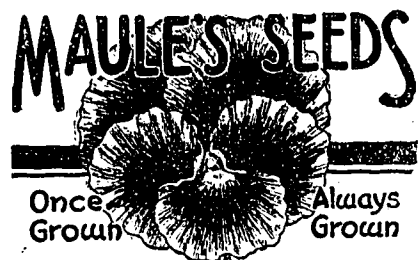

The business meeting is one of importance, as preparations for the circus to be held early in May must be discussed. Will the members please note?

the select few and not to the masses. Narberth has tried to meet the masses, this year in particular. We have organized girls' and boys' basketball teams from the sixth grade through to the twelfth, which have played 274 games after school hours. The following is a brief report:

Sixth Grade—4 boys' teams, played 3 games; 4 girls' teams, played 20 games.

Seventh and Eighth Grades—7 boys' teams, played 119 games.

High School Class—4 boys' teams, played 36 games; 4 girls' teams, played 36 games.

Varsity—1 boys' team, played 15 games; 1 girls' team, played 12 games.

Total of 25 teams, which played 274 games.

If six pupils compose a team, that will be 150 boys and girls who enjoyed after school play during January, February and March. Therefore 150 pupils out of a possible 240 gives a percentage of 62½. Compared with other schools, this is a high per cent. But it could be and should be much greater. The fact that it isn't is because the parents will not co-operate, by using their influence in pushing after school play with their children. Probably the parents don't realize the value of organized, supervised play in a growing child's life. Organized play develops courage, skill, loyalty, fairness and aggressive health more than any other thing.

We will be glad to book order for Jeddo Coal during the month of April at prices prevailing in Philadelphia and vicinity.

Most of you know that this coal is the best that comes to market, and to those of you who don't, we have no hesitancy in proclaiming the fact that if better coal exists anywhere in the wide earth it has not as yet been discovered.

Our thought is that the Coal Business will be slow this Spring and Summer, to be followed by a stampede in the Fall. Take our advice and order early, and don't forget to order from us, where you will get good coal and lots of appreciation furnished f. o. b. with the goods.

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow-townsmen, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register.

As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.
